

Lang·try (lang'trē), Lily
 the "Jersey Lily," E lan·guage (lang'gwij) n. 1
 communication of emoti
 ing, the sounds by mean tematized and conf
 given people over sion of over

NATION

- The term 'nation' is often equated with the term 'country'; however, some believe it is much more than that
- A definition: a nation is people who share a sense of belonging together and who want to control their own destiny
- Desire to gain sovereignty over a geographical territory that is a fundamental part of that group's history (cultural homeland)
- According to some definitions, ethnic groups that do not have a cultural homeland do not constitute a nation

STATE

