

"Not necessarily conscription, but conscription if necessary"

William Lyon Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada, 1942

Would you go to war if the country needed
you?

“The Jews should have offered themselves to the butcher's knife. They should have thrown themselves into the sea from cliffs,”

“It would have aroused the world and the people of Germany ... as it is, they succumbed anyway in their millions.”
