

Step 4: Isolation

Various regulations restricting professions and business ownership.

Nuremberg Laws:

- Marriages and sex between Jews and “citizens” outlawed
- Jews are forbidden to display national symbols
- Punished with hard labour or imprisonment

Later, Jewish people were barred from all schools, universities, cinemas, theatres and sports facilities.

Step 4: Isolation

Nuremberg Laws:

- The only way to deal with the problem which remains open is that of legislative action. The German Government is in this controlled by the thought that through a single secular solution it may be possible still to create a level ground on which the German people may find a tolerable relation towards the Jewish people. Should this hope not be fulfilled and the Jewish agitation both within Germany and in the international sphere should continue, then the position must be examined afresh.
- The third [law] is an attempt to regulate by law [the Jewish] problem, which, should this attempt fail, must then be handed over by law to the National-Socialist Party for a final solution.
