

The Western Front

he had no desire to destroy the British Empire. Britain duly 19th Hitler publicly offered to end the war, saying suggestion that peace must be based on justice, not rejected this, responding "there was in his speech word of recognition that the other nations of Europe had any right to self-determination..."

