

Imagine you woke up one morning
that this is what you experienced...

Imagine

- Aliens have landed on earth and claimed Canada (and every other country for that matter) as a part of their inter-galactic empire.
- The aliens have announced that we are expected to learn and adopt the alien's "superior" cultural practices & beliefs
- The beliefs and cultural practices of Canadians are to be eliminated
- Your Task:
 - How would you react to this turn of events?
 - What would you do to resist the aliens? (Or would you?)
 - How could you maintain your culture and beliefs? (Or would you allow yourself to be assimilated?)
 - Are aliens out there? Have they visited?
