

Minority Language Education

- In 2005 the Supreme Court ruled that it was in violation of section 23 of the Charter for Francophone parents to educate their children in Anglophone schools in Quebec since section 23 protects the rights of Francophones as a minority culture.
- The Supreme Court also determined that immigrants do have the right to educate their children in Anglophone schools in Quebec if their children have already received education in English.

Manitoba Act

