

1890

- Manitoba School Act abolishes public funding for Catholic (French) schools. Making it officially an “English-only” province.

1969

- The official Languages Act reasserts the equality of French and English as official languages of Canada, as established at Confederation.

1982

- The Charter confirms official bilingualism and establishes official language minority education rights.

The Charter and Official Language Minority Education Rights

- With the inclusion of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms in the constitution in 1982 led to the development of Francophone schools and school boards.
- There are currently more than 25 Francophone school boards, 4 of which are in Alberta which includes Alberta's 40 publicly funded Francophones schools.