

Fascist Principles

- Democracy is weak
- Society must share a common purpose
- Nation-states must dominate other nations
- Domination is achieved through:
 - Discipline
 - Obedience
 - An all powerful state

A Fascist Figure

- Remember the differences between this and communism

Political Ideas	Economic Ideas	Social Ideas
• cult of the leader and elite rule • extreme nationalism • organized violence and war and military force • it is in the country's national interest to expand its territory	• a government-directed private enterprise economy to serve the needs and interests of the state • anti-union/anti-workers' rights	• inequalities between individuals and groups of people • racial purity • racial or national superiority • national strength more important than individual rights
