

INDIGENOUS RIGHTS

- Co-operation – competition – coercion
- Proclamation of 1763, treaties, Indian Act
- Efforts to eliminate those rights: White Paper (Red Paper response)
- Efforts to restore and revitalize those rights: Royal Commission, land claims settlements and self-government

FRANCOPHONE RIGHTS

- Quiet Revolution – the response to the increasing marginalization of the francophone people
 - Bill 101
 - FLQ Crisis (more on this later)
 - Refusal to sign Constitution
 - 1980 and 1995 referendums regarding separation
- Today:
 - Creation of immigration guidelines, dwindling support for separatist parties
