

British East India Trading Company

- Granted monopoly rights the company became more powerful
- Formed political alliances
- The company develops its own army
 - British officers, Indian enlists “Sepoys” (Indian army officers who are threatened if they refuse)
 - Support Indian allies/keep out competition
 - Dutch East Indian Company
- Use of bribery, extortion and military might
- REMEMBER... this is a “company”

