

FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS

- The freedom to express your opinions.
- The freedom to choose your own religion.
- The freedom to organize peaceful meetings and demonstrations.
- The freedom to associate with any person or group.

Any exceptions or special cases with each?

DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS

- The right to vote for members of the House of Commons and of provincial legislatures.
- The right to vote for a new government at least every five years.

Why every 5 years?