

Does it matter who owns the media?

Should the government stop any one company from controlling too much of the media?

Diversification:

media companies
expanding and branching
out in to different areas of the media industry.

Do YOU know who controls Canadian media?