

- The church claimed to have ultimate authority from God

- To question authority, especially the king's, was to question God

- Popes and kings often came into conflict over whose power was greater

- Life for most people was harsh and short, but the faithful were promised an afterlife in paradise

The Church in Federal Times

The Church in Feudal Times

- The church claimed to have ultimate authority from God
- To question authority, especially the king's, was to question God
- Popes and kings often came into conflict over whose power was greater
- Life for most people was harsh and short, but the faithful were promised an afterlife in paradise

Medieval Church: Positives & Negatives

