

The Second Estate: The Nobility

o Nobles could hunt anywhere

Did not have to pay all taxes but one type o Didnt have to fight in the army

Did not have to participate in mandatory work

o The king would often create jobs for them

The highest ranking nobles live in Versailles

SECOND STATE-THE-NON-BLES

SECOND ESTATE - THE NOBLES

- o Nobles could hunt anywhere
- o Did not have to pay all taxes but one type
- o Did not have to fight in the army
- o Did not have to participate in mandatory construction work
- o The king would often create jobs for them
- o The highest ranking nobles could live in Versailles

THIRD ESTATE - EVERYONE ELSE

- During feudalism almost all of the Third Estate were peasant farmers called serfs
- During absolutism the Third Estate split into three groups
 - The Bourgeoisie
 - Urban workers
 - Peasants