

Storming of the Bastille
July 14th - 1789

- Louis XVI refuses to accept constitutional monarchy

- Citizens storm the Bastille (political prison)

- A symbol of the King's power

- Victims' heads paraded through the streets on spikes

■ Fall of the Bastille now celebrated as a national holiday

- An expression of collective consciousness
 - An group's understanding of how they are united together (often with unifying symbols)

Storming of the Bastille

July 14th - 1789

- Louis XVI refuses to accept constitutional monarchy
- Citizens storm the Bastille (political prison)
 - A symbol of the King's power
- Victims' heads paraded through the streets on spikes
- Fall of the Bastille now celebrated as a national holiday
- An expression of collective consciousness
 - A group's understanding of how they are united together (often with unifying symbols)

After the Fall of the Bastille

