

---

North America

STATE

- Definition: An independent political unit with territorial boundaries that are recognized by other states.

- A sovereign area in the world, often synonymous with country e.g. Canada, Republic of Ireland
- Nations are "people" or more precisely "an imagined community,"
- States are political constructions with well-defined borders that are recognized by other states and strong institutions (government) to manage internal affairs.

RELATED TERMS

---

