

Peace

World Council of Indigenous People

- * The council dealt with the economic, cultural, political, and social rights of indigenous peoples, along with the retention of their land and natural resources

- * Curriculum says we cover this even though:

“Though it made much progress for the rights of Indigenous peoples and groups, the WCIP dissolved in 1996 due to internal conflict.”

