

to improve Soviet exports, fund modernization and provide high quality
domestic goods

Plant managers give more input into production needs

Stopped producing unwanted goods

Large state enterprise self-financing

Small private enterprises were encouraged

 Joint ventures with Western companies encouraged

GORBACHEV'S

REFORMS

GORBACHEV'S REFORMS

to improve Soviet exports, fund modernization and provide high quality
.....domestic goods.....

- Plant managers given more input into production needs
- Stopped producing unwanted goods
- Large state enterprises became self-financing
- Small private enterprises were encouraged
- Joint ventures with Western companies encouraged

GORBACHEV'S

REFORMS

PERESTROIKA & GLASNOST
THE END OF THE SOVIET UNION 1985-91

- Glasnost – openness (allowing the citizens a greater say, and more transparency in government)
- Perestroika – is "restructuring" (or change), referring to the restructuring of the Soviet political and economic system.