

Bay of Reactions

- 📌 U.S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson denied any involvement in the first wave of air strikes, stating before the United Nations, "These charges are totally false and I deny them categorically." Stevenson continued to promote a story of two Cuban planes that had reportedly defected to the United States, apparently unaware that they were in fact U.S. planes piloted by U.S.-backed Cuban pilots.
- 📌 Che Guevara sent a note to Kennedy. It read: "Thanks for Playa Girón. Before the invasion, the revolution was weak. Now it's stronger than ever".
- 📌 The US halted trade with Cuba 5 months later.

They're Just Very Large... Cigars?

Cuban Missile Crisis of 1962

Issue: spheres of influence

U2 spy plane finds missile sites on Cuba

