

Who will lead, How to Decide

- 1) Let's say that 10 teachers have survived along with the rest of the student body. Who makes decisions?
- 2) Do you have anyway to replace the leaders? Is someone a leader of all things or just some?

Two scenarios to deal with

- 1) How do you deal with someone who finds and hoards the island's food?
- 2) Someone is caught stealing the camp's supplies... how do you deal with them?
