

Social Darwinism

- What is Darwinism?
- How could this be applied to economics?
- How could this be applied to people?

Some individuals or groups achieve power and advantage because they are stronger and fitter.

I'm so sad my name is on this...

Yay Democracy!

- 1919 - Germany becomes a republic (what's that?) with a liberal democracy
- The German Parliament (Reichstag) is elected through universal suffrage
- This era becomes known as the Weimar Republic
