

50 CENTS
Newsday
LONG ISLAND
MAY 1961

REBEL FORCE INVADES CUBA

Castro Calls Emergency

By Russell L. McFarley
From New York

Soviet revolutionaries invaded their island home-land by air and sea today and clashed with Fidel Cas- tro's forces in a violent conventional battle just 10 miles from Havana.

Invading a long-overlooked offshore neighbor, Castro, the revolutionaries landed from the sea shortly after midnight. They struck into the country area around the Bay of Cochon, 100 km east of Havana Province.

Several hours after dawn the government internal radio administration system announced on the way-outside the islanders were dropping by gene-ration, phone were breaking and creating the battle-land men, and two government reported the south.

In radio, the government reported today after 1000 hours an official statement that the Cuban Government had declared a state of national emergency. The statement said Castro was speaking as a member of the committee to make decisions before action. "Under national emergency."

A Cuban Radio Havana broadcast had to be interrupted several times for the invasion of the island. It said that the Cuban Government had declared a state of national emergency. It said that the Cuban Government had declared a state of national emergency. It said that the Cuban Government had declared a state of national emergency.

The invasion of the island of Cuba is the first time since the Cuban Revolution that the island has been invaded by a foreign power. The invasion is the first time since the Cuban Revolution that the island has been invaded by a foreign power. The invasion is the first time since the Cuban Revolution that the island has been invaded by a foreign power.

HOW MANY MORE? - How many more Cuban soldiers will be killed in the invasion? The answer is not known. The answer is not known. The answer is not known.

The Bay of Pigs

FINAL
DAILY NEWS
NEW YORK'S PICTURE NEWSPAPER
5¢

KENNEDY TAKES THE GLOVES OFF

"We do not intend to be lectured on 'in-tervention' by those whose character was stamped for all time on the bloody streets of Budapest . . .

"It is not the first time Communist tanks have rolled over gol-dest men and women . . .

"Cuba must not be abandoned to the Com-munists. And we do not intend to abandon it . . .

"I am determined upon our system's sur-vival and success, re-gardless of the cost and regardless of the peril . . .

President Kennedy's fighting face. In action U. S. president takes a stand.