

Internment

Thenotso great part

● During WW1 - Ukrainian Canadians

- During WW2 - Italian and Japanese Canadians

Why?

Ukrainians - forced to work, possessions seized, kept after the war ended

Indians-arrested and put into camps

Japanese - 20k people, could only bring what they could carry, moved from the coast to inland BC, were promised they would have their possessions when released but, instead, they were sold off

The not so great part

- During WW1 - Ukrainian Canadians
- During WW2 - Italian and Japanese Canadians

Why?

Ukrainians - forced to work, possessions seized, kept after the war ended

Italians - arrested and put into camps

Japanese - 20k people, could only bring what they could carry, moved from the coast to inland BC, were promised they would have their possessions when released but, instead, they were sold off

Internment

[illegible]
