

The Singh Decision

- In 1984, Satnam Singh had his refugee claim rejected and was not allowed to state his case in person, or appeal the ruling under the 1976 Immigration Act.

- Section 7 of the CCRF states that everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of the person, and the right not to be deprived thereof except in accordance with the principles of fundamental justice

- Supreme Court rules that everyone physically in Canada has this right

EVERY

HUMAN

HAS

RIGHTS

Results

Refugees claim have a right to a hearing in person

Quick and fair hearings through Immigration & Refugee Board

- Government will provide “necessities of life” while they wait for hearing

EVERY HUMAN
HAS
RIGHTS

- In 1984, Satnam Singh had his refugee claim rejected and was not allowed to state his case in person, or appeal the ruling under the 1976 Immigration Act.
- Section 7 of the CCRF states that everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of the person, and the right not to be deprived thereof except in accordance with the principles of fundamental justice
- Supreme Court rules that everyone physically in Canada has this right

Results

- Refugee claims have a right to a hearing in person
- Quick and fair hearings through Immigration & Refugee Board
- Government will provide “necessities of life” while they wait for hearing

The Singh Decision

The Provincial Nominee Program

