

June 20-1789

■ Tennis Court Oath

- Representatives from the Third Estate met to resume talks
- Louis XVI orders assembly doors locked
- Delegates then meet in a tennis court
- Swore not to disband until they had given France a constitution
- Louis XVI gives in and allows Third Estate to vote by head

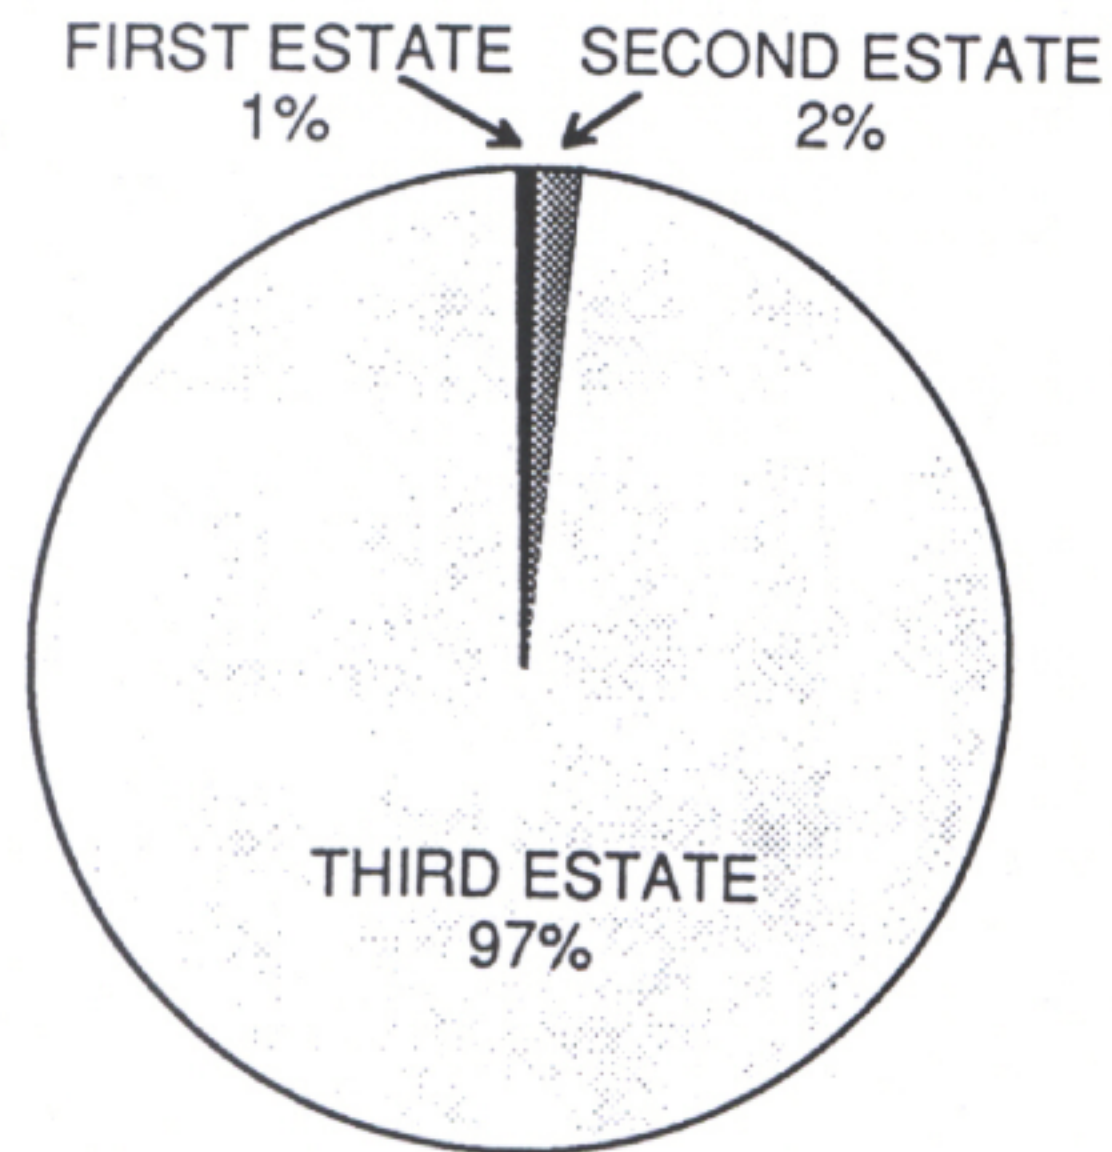

June 20 - 1789

■ Tennis Court Oath

- Representatives from the Third Estate met to resume talks
- Louis XVI orders assembly doors locked
- Delegates then meet in a tennis court
- Swore not to disband until they had given France a constitution
- Louis XVI gives in and allows Third Estate to vote by head

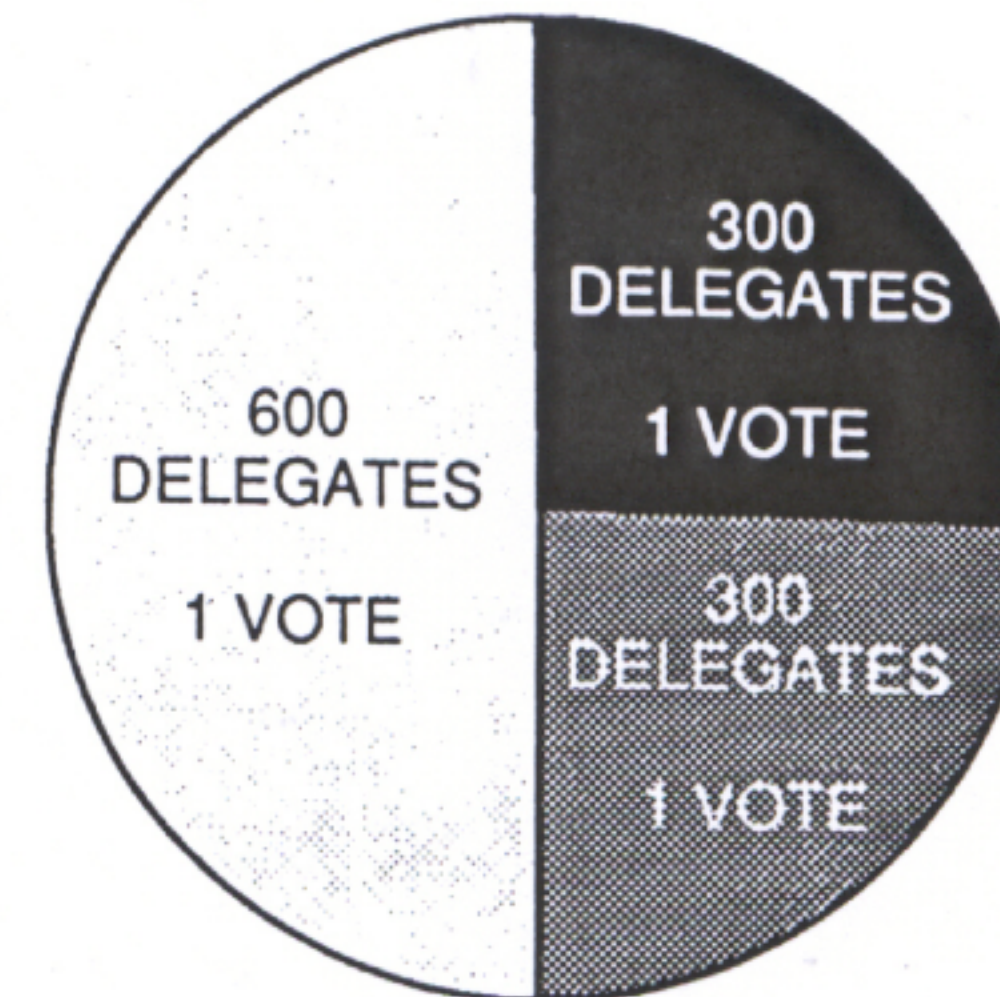

Now what would happen?

A. Each Estate as a Percentage of the Total Population

Total Population = 26 500 000

B. Representation of Each Estate at the Estates-General

Total number of delegates = 1200

- – FIRST ESTATE Upper clergy and lower clergy
- ▨ – SECOND ESTATE Wealthy to poor nobles
- – THIRD ESTATE From Bourgeoisie to peasants

