

MANDELA
FOR FREEDOM

South Africa

- British colony where blacks outnumber whites
- Whites given political and economic privileges
- Blacks not allowed to vote, removed from homes and put into “tribal homelands”, not allowed to marry inter-racially
- Apartheid - institutionalized segregation
- 1990 - Nelson Mandela released from prison, intl. pressure builds and apartheid laws are overturned in 1994

Rwanda

- 10% of the population were called “Tutsis”
- 90% of the population were called “Hutus”
- It was believed that the “Tutsis” had some “white blood” in them

So, who should rule while the Belgians are in power?
