

1884 - Berlin Conference

- United States, Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Britain, Italy, the Netherlands, the Ottoman Empire, Portugal, Russia, Spain, and Sweden-Norway
- Meet in Berlin to divide Africa among themselves. They wanted to:
 - Avoid conflicts with other imperial powers,
 - Protect existing trade routes,
 - Gain control of the continent's natural resources, which included gold, diamonds, and rubber.
- These countries had a Eurocentric view (a belief that the European world view is superior to all others)

Africa
Is not great because...

