

ROUSSEAU YOU THOUGHT I WAS GONE...

- Jean-Jacques Rousseau
 - The Enlightenment
- Individuals must voluntarily give up their own interests to follow the collective will of society
- Liberty and equality are encouraged to promote the common good.

Hi there, do you like my hat?

KEY TERMS

- Collective Interest - a goal that all members of the group pursue that benefits the group as a whole
- Collective Responsibility - the group is responsible for the individual. Also the individual is responsible to the group.

Can you think of examples in our country that follow either of these principles?
