

Ancient History

- Which of the following is true?

A group of brave men endured months of torturous life at sea.

When they arrived they found a harsh land and people that threatened them.

Thanks to their ingenuity and superior technology they were able to overcome the odds.

OR

A group of conquerors landed on the shores of a peaceful land.

They treated the land as their own instead of taking care and respecting it.

Thanks to the diseases they brought and the materials they obtained from the land, they were able to subjugate the people and conquer the land.

Humans are

- Without any influence, what are human beings? (Answer in a single word, or 2 if you need)