

Another Brick in the Wall

Alienation: Capitalist system workers work for others. No connection to work and thus himself.

Slaves for another social class.

Exploitation of workers: where does profit come from? How do you create more?

- Labour: man works and transforms nature -> nature interacts with man and transforms consciousness
- The way you think is closely connected to the job you do.

Charles-Louis de Secondat, Baron de La Brède
et de Montesquieu
(Montesquieu)

1689 - 1755

What period are ALL of these philosophers from?